Monthly Public Health Resources Newsletter

In this issue

December includes World AIDS Day (December 1st) and the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women (December 6), with the content of this issue largely centered around these events. While not all resources will focus on these topics, they will be more prominently featured.

To learn more about what's happening in December, please visit the HEART Multi-Faith/Cultural Calendar and visit the Government of Canada calendar of health promotion days.
